The School of Electrical Engineering organizes the selection of doctoral candidates twice a year. The objective of the School of Electrical Engineering is that doctoral candidates become full-time students. Application rounds for full-time doctoral studies are organized four times a year. Application rounds for part-time doctoral studies are organized twice a year.

* Other applications: confirmation of study plan, change of research field/supervising professor/advisor etc., examiners for licentiate thesis, evaluation of licentiate thesis, pre-examination (naming the examiners, permission to publish), evaluation of dissertation.

The duties of the Doctoral Programme Committee are

- to prepare the selection of the Doctoral Programme applicants for the Dean’s decision;
- to approve the topic and decide on the language of postgraduate theses;
- to confirm the study plans of the Doctoral Programme applicants;
- to appoint the preliminary examiners for doctoral dissertation and decide on the permission to publish of dissertation's manuscript;
- to grade dissertation;
- to appoint the examiners for licentiate thesis;
- to grade licentiate thesis; and
- to discuss other matters appointed by the Dean or stated in degree regulations.

The chair of the Doctoral Programme Committee decides the date of the defence of dissertation and its language and appoints Custos and opponent(s) for the defence of dissertation.
