Submit your application now! Studies at Aalto, outside your own field of study

Aalto University students may apply for a study right at another Aalto school. Some minors and individual courses require an application, while others are open for all.

The application period for studies to be completed later this academic year runs until May 31st.

See the courses and minors offered at each Aalto School and instructions for applying, and submit your application May 31st the latest.