Lecture: Aalto research information systems, good scientific conduct and open science 21.2.2019

Time: Thursday 21 February 2019 at 12.15 - 13.45
Place: Otaniemi, Tuas-building, lecture hall TU3 (Maarintie 8)
Lecturer: Antti Rousi, Research and Innovation Services

The lecture provides young researchers and doctoral students at the School of Science with understanding of the research information systems at Aalto, recommendations of the Finnish National Board on Research Integrity and open science solutions at Aalto.

Registration: please sign up here by 18 February

Contents:

- Introduction into ACRIS and research.aalto.fi
  - main work flows
  - administrating your profile
  - adding publication and activity data

Good scientific conduct

- introduction into recommendations of Finnish National Board on Research Integrity
- researcher CV template

Open science in Aalto university

- open access to scientific publications
- data management solutions and open data

Questions:

Antti Rousi
Research and Innovation Services
Open Science and ACRIS, SCI
antti.m.rousi@aalto.fi
050-379 0670