

Arts, Design and Architecture

Suomeksi

Aalto University School of Arts, Design and Architecture offers doctoral studies in the fields of architecture, art, design, media, film and scenography.

The normative time to take the degree for full-time doctoral students is four years.

Annually more than 15 Doctors of Arts and one or two Doctors of Science (Architecture) are graduating. Aalto University's research information portal gives information about doctoral students and their research projects, <https://research.aalto.fi/portal/en/>. You can also find dissertations through Aaltodoc publications on archive.
