Description of the programme

Master's Programme in Finance is organized by the School of Business. The objective of the programme is to provide a dynamic, demanding, and supportive learning-centred environment which:

- prepares students for jobs in the world's most selective companies in international banking, management consultancy, and related areas
- helps students develop a solid scientific approach to financial issues, preparing some of the students for the world's best Finance PhD programmes
- encourages the development of broader communication, teamwork, ethical, quantitative, and intercultural skills that students need both in general management positions and as active citizens

Career prospects

Finance students have an excellent placement record in the job market. Most Finance graduates find their first jobs in the financial industry, such as investment and commercial banks, brokerage firms, mutual fund companies and insurance companies. Management consulting companies, industrial corporations and public institutions are also important employers of Finance graduates.

Here you can find the degree requirements of the programme, and the necessary information about completing the degree and its contents. These pages are mainly aimed at the students of the programme. If you are thinking about applying to the programme please see How to apply.
