

The start of studies are supported with informational events at the School of Engineering

School of Engineering holds several information events for students during orientation week and later in September. The aim of these events is to support studies as they begin or continue.

Orientation week for new students is held 2–6 September 2019 at breakfast from 8.30 am and at 9.00 with a welcome event held by the School of Engineering in hall U2 (Otakaari 1). See the full schedule for bachelor's student orientation week here: <https://into.aalto.fi/x/ExAS>. The orientation course introduces students to studying and provides helpful information for all phases of studies.

Incoming first-year students of the School of Engineering were given a summer assignment. Its aim is to orientate students toward studies and current and future challenges engineers face. Results from the summer assignment are used in student orientation. For more information, contact Virpi Riissanen (virpi.riissanen@aalto.fi) or Suvi Kaartinen (suvi.kaartinen@aalto.fi).
