

Application for extension to the right to study

If you have not completed the degree within the normative duration of studies, but want to finish the degree, then you can apply for extension to the study right. Please consult the general Aalto university guidelines before submitting your application.

You can find the instructions when you log in to on-line application system.

workbox on-line application Apply for extension to the right to study

School of Business student: Submit your application and attachments on eAge by 15 May in the spring term or 15 November in the autumn term.