

International students

Welcome to Aalto University

These webpages are meant for international students of Aalto University, both exchange and degree students. These pages provide you the most essential information especially before and upon arrival in Finland but also later on during your studies at Aalto University and life in Finland. Please take a moment and read these webpages through.