

Call for demos: Apply now to the New European Bauhaus Goes Digital event October 28th

*Do you have a fresh data-driven innovation that solves a problem related to our living environments? Call for demos open until September 12th.

We are looking for the latest innovations of data-driven methods, such as simulation, robotisation, optimization, parameterization and automatisisation from the creative field; innovations that relate to at least one aspect of our living environments: Nature, Cities and neighborhoods, Buildings, User-oriented design or Materials.

Apply now with your demo to be a part the New European Bauhaus Goes Digital online event on October 28th to help your ideas fly. In the event's Demo rooms, you will get a chance to present your innovation and have a discussion with a forward-thinking audience. Call for demos is open from August 23rd to September 12th.

Read more and apply here.

New European Bauhaus Goes Digital is an international online event held on October 28th. The event brings the future of creative work to the forefront discussing questions such as: What kind of societal and cultural changes are we facing due to ongoing systemic change in the field of design and architecture? What opportunities does the digitalized future bring? Read more here.

The New European Bauhaus is a creative initiative that aims to combine sustainability, inclusion and aesthetics. It is an environmental, economic and cultural project instigated by the European Commission. Read more here.

The event is organized by the Finnish Ministry of the Environment in cooperation with the Building Information Group Finland, University of Porto, Aalto University, The Bureau of European Design Associations BEDA and Archinfo Finland.